++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:

Dull and damp on Wednesday, brightening up in the north.

Today:

The Central Belt and south staying cloudy with some mainly light rain or drizzle, misty over high ground. Northern Argyll should brighten up with some sunshine, perhaps edging down towards Dunbartonshire and Inverclyde later. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:

Some early clear intervals north of Glasgow, otherwise cloudy with some mist drizzle and hill fog pushing north across Argyll, while cloud breaks appear across the south overnight. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Thursday:

A mainly dry day. Cloud will be variable but most areas should see the sun breaking through at some point. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:

It will be a dry spell of weather with clear or sunny spells, and patchy cloud. A mild start but turning colder with increasing chance of frost and fog.
